

Supporting adults with a learning disability and autism

Aim

To provide participants with a general introduction to autism and adults with a learning disability, and how to positively support them.

For

Anyone who provides support for adults with a learning disability and autism.

Participants are advised to have completed module 1, introduction to working with adults with a learning disability and listening skills before attending this workshop.

Content

- What is Autism?
- Differences and difficulties adults with autism may experience
- Communication
- What helps when supporting someone with autism and a learning disability

Learning outcomes

At the end of the course the participants should:

- Know what autism is and how it affects people with a learning disability
- Understand the main difficulties someone with a learning disability and autism may experience
- Be able to contribute to the creation of positive support and capable environments for someone who has a learning disability and autism

Duration

1 day

Time

9.30am - 4.30pm

Dates and venue

24 June 2020

1 October 2020

11 March 2021

Venue to be confirmed

Click here to book a place on this course